

PRESS RELEASE – COCKTAIL COMPETITION – INTOXICATION - 2015

Chandigarh January 30, 2015

Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Hotel Management, a premier Hotel Management Institute under Ministry of Tourism, Govt. of India, organized a cocktail competition “INTOXICATION – 2015” in the Institute for the students. It was an apt occasion for the high spiritedness in a wide range of talent and creativity.

The day started with a vibrant and colorful “Intoxication 2015” which was organized for the third year students of the Institute. Five students were shortlisted who demonstrate their bartending skills after initial screening which was open for all third years. The event had two sections where the students first had to prepare a Classical Cocktail and then an Innovative Cocktail which was their own creation. All the participants gave in their best efforts and showed their creativity and glorified the event. The students showcased various aspects of bartending such as flaring and mixing. The event was very interactive and full of entertainment. Some of the classical cocktails prepared by the students were Whisky Sour, Screwdriver, Tequila Sunrise, Blue Lagoon, Pink lady. The winners were as follows:

1st Position	Deepika
2nd Position	Siddharth Gaba
3rd Position	Akshat Johari

“Such events help the students to showcase their talent, creativity and skills which they have acquired with their hard work and dedication during the years in the institute. I am very pleased with the performances and the results. I believe these students will shine and make their mark in the competitive professional world” said Mrs. Bharti Tyagi, Principal of the Institute.
